and watching you play football for WILSON.
I wish you the best of luck in everything you do 'cause you deserve it. Good luck after you graduate and I hope you become a success in whatever you decide to do. Keep in touch over the summer 2229585 and enjoy yourself. I hope we'll still continue to be friend even if you are

 What can I say,

but, you're one of a kind. You have a certain something? about your character.

It's really a shame that school is coming to an end, because I probably won't see you around as much as I used to. Maybe one day we'll get back to talking about all the fun we used to have. Who knows maybe that day will be next week or next year (I hope not but who knows)
 Oh well that's enough for now
 Hope to be seeing you around

 Come and visit ok, but don't forget. I know how sometimes you have memory lapses but try and come up here again. ☺

To My Dear Kenny:

Don't think I'm grateful to the sophomores for signing so close to their entry but why I just couldn't find a nice spot to begin. I hope this is okay. Anyway I will not cry (yet?) because you're graduating but who knows when the time comes!

It has been a year full of

IT'S fond memories, experiences,
ONLY and surprises?? I
THE know that everyone has to graduate sooner or later and
BEGINNING!! *cont' on

*Kenny
you are all

miss you take care of yourself and have a fun summer
and pray and your night

THE HOOFPRIINT WAY

THEY WANTED IT . . .
 THEY STRIVED FOR IT . . .
 THEY WORKED AT IT . . .
 THEY GOT IT . . .
 WHAT WAS IT?!!
VICTORY!

They said we were too small, that it just couldn't be done. But they came by the thousands to see this team that was loaded with talent, speed, thinking, and good coaching, take the city 3-A title away from Bell High School in 1975.

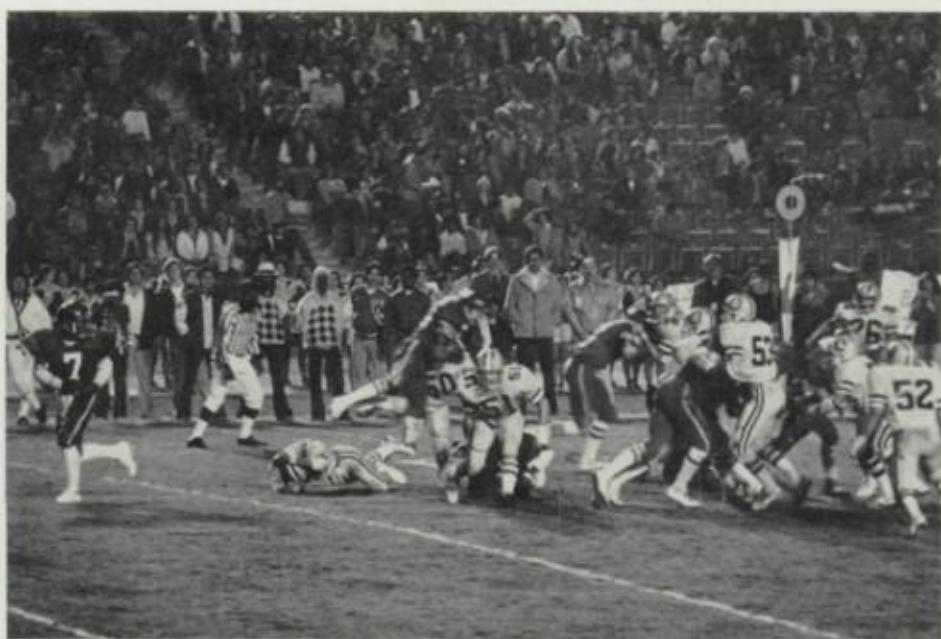

This year the talk was on whether or not the Mules could do it again. Early in the season, the Mules suffered a lot of losses due to injuries. Even though these losses occurred, the Mules bounced right back with more men off the bench who either did as well a job as the man he replaced, or an even better job. With probably the best coaching staff in the city, the new faces on the field accomplished more than a job well done. New records were broken, and the Mules gained a 26 in a row winning streak, that not only broke a city record, but led the Mules to a final victory against Bell High School as Woodrow Wilson High School remained the 3-A City Champions in 1976.

Action is the Key word to describe our mighty "Bee" team as they proved themselves tough and hard to beat. The Mini-Hoofsters started the season right with a league win over Marshall, 14-12. The team enjoyed other such moments during the remainder of the season. Credit must be given to Mr. Richard Lopez and Mr. Jack Garofono for their devotion and effort in coaching the team.

I'm pretty sure
we'll get together and enjoy life
cool and easy.
Anyways I shouldn't make this sound
as sad as it seems.
I'm not the one
graduating yet!
Just when school begins again I'll be seeing you at the National Games (yeh! we're going to win!) and maybe other various activities (right?)

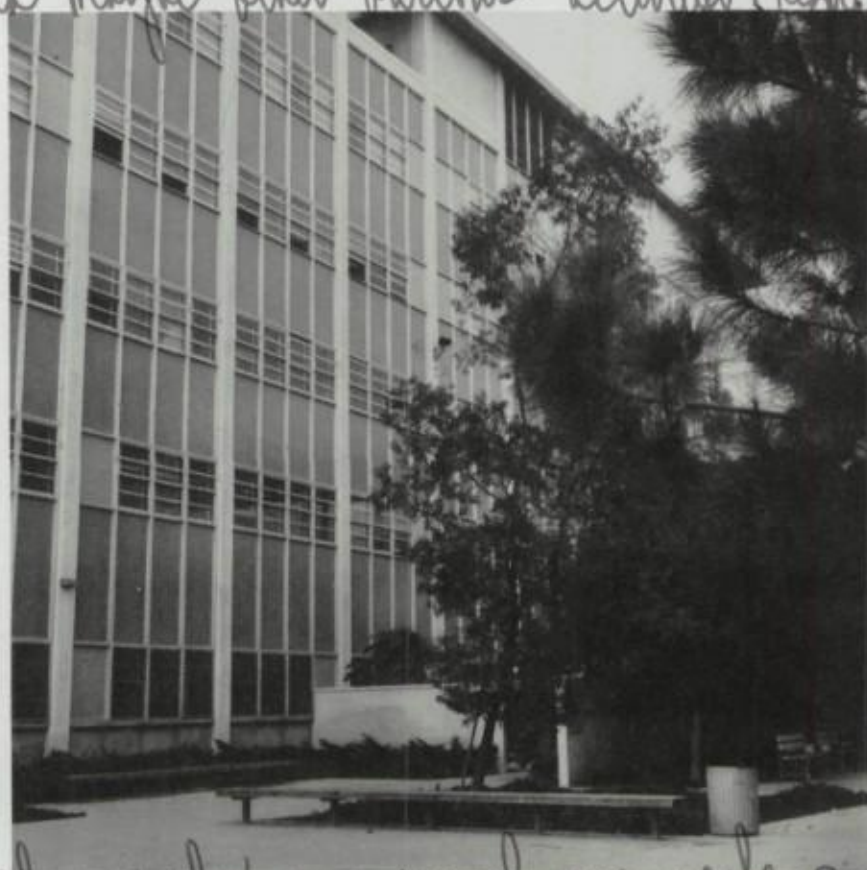

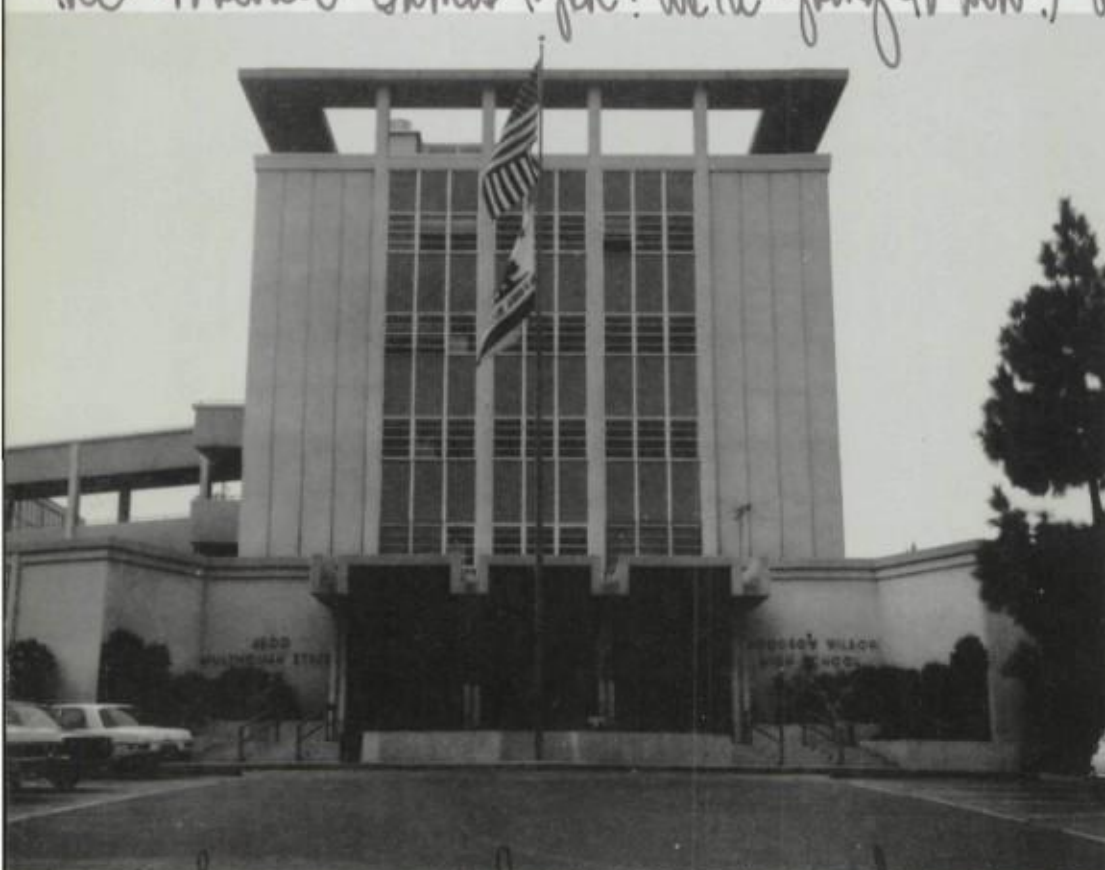

WILSON ALMA MATER...

Sons of Wilson raise your voices,
In a hymn of praise.
Friendship ties we'll ever cherish,
In our hearts always.

Woodrow Wilson, Alma Mater,
Sing we praise to thee.
Thy strong bonds shall ne'er be broken
Bonds of loyalty.

May our love for you, dear Wilson
Growing constantly.
Cling to us throughout our lifetime
In our memory.

When our school days here are over,
And we have to part.
May thy fine enduring spirit,
Fill each loyal heart.

WILSON AS IT IS

I hope this isn't too confusing to read because I can't even read it myself. And I mean it!

Okay so what do you think of our annual this year. I think it's better than last year
but my pictures just came out horrid.

Okay - I'm going to take it at your

El Sereno was unusually quiet that night, and the clear air with a slight chill pocketed itself over the city blanketing the activities in the homes on the hillside. The T.V.s within spoke of the famous scientist at Cal Tech of Pasadena, who felt that earthquake prediction was a possibility given the right conditions in the area of any large fault. There had been several slight tremors in the past few days, and the probability of an earthquake became imminent.

The next day, early in the morning, an unearthly mist and fog shrouded the buildings of Wilson, deforming their familiar shapes. A slow stream of bundled students tracked their way on to the campus trying to beat the tardy bell for first period. There was a warning, but the sound of the earth being beaten by a thousand trains at full speed was not familiar nor was it cause for immediate alarm.

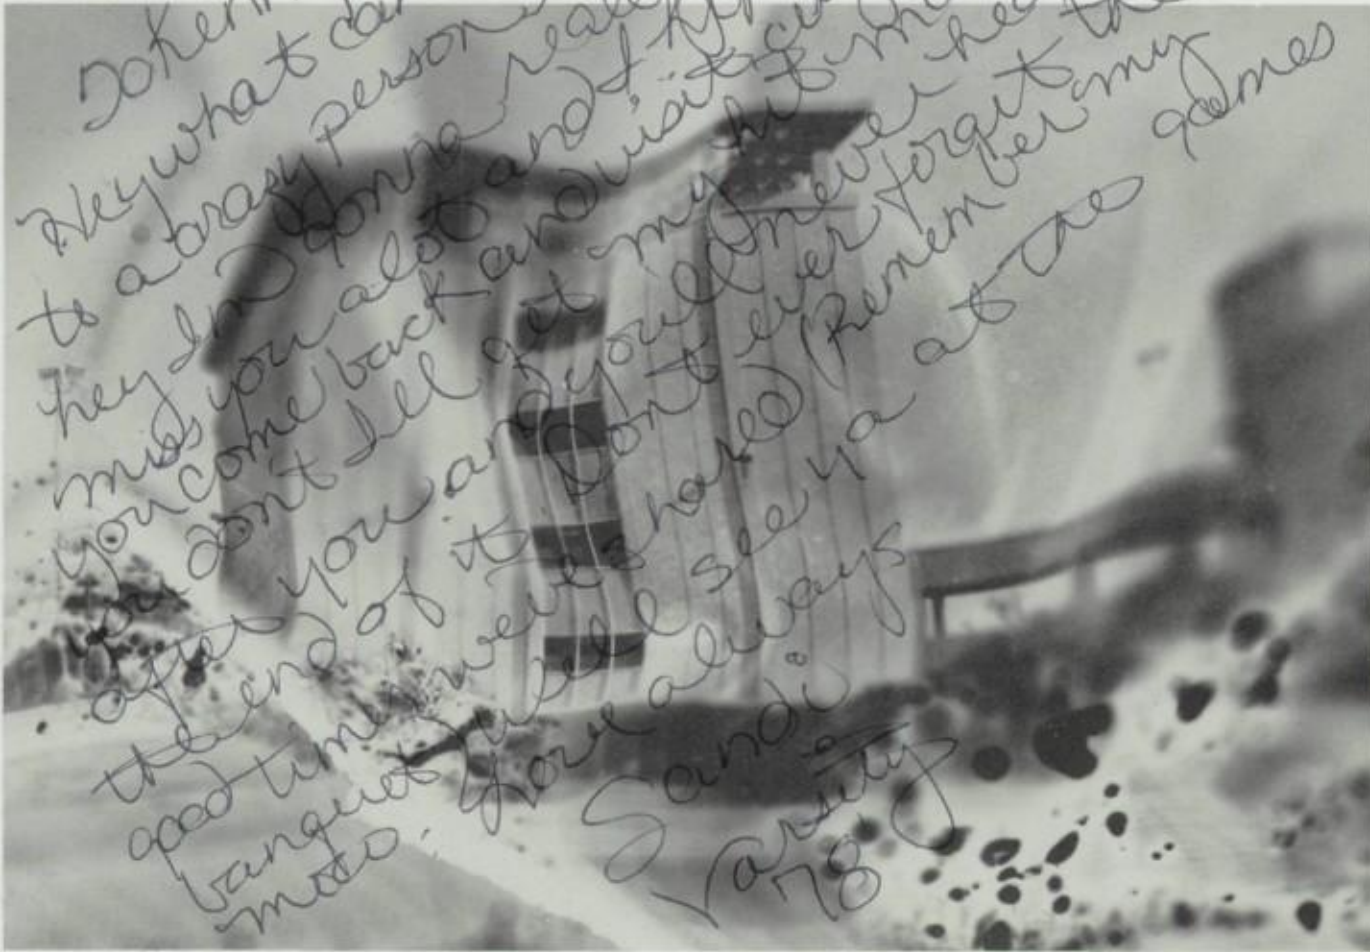

It was a sharp cracking sound and suddenly the parking lot snaked and buckled bouncing the cars in all directions. The windows in the main building and library showered their panes to the asphalt, the students ran from the swaying structures, yelling the loud shrieking tones. The tremor stopped but the buildings continued to spew out students running, hobbling and crying from injuries sustained in the crashing of ceilings and walls. Then it happened again. This time the tremor threw the teachers and students to the ground and the buildings swayed and ground their way to large mounds of clouded cement, glass, flying sparks and small fires.

I snapped back to reality. The suggestion of my student's proposal for a storyboard flashed in my mind, a series of pictures of Wilson experiencing an earthquake. He repeated, "Mr. Danyo can I do a storyboard about an earthquake hitting Wilson?" "Yes," I said slowly slumping into my chair.

I really don't like the colors myself cuz it's sure going to look identical to the class of '76 !!! (yuk-how awful) Hey what ever happened to your fantastic class-spirited certainties (I guess they weren't what they use to be, huh?) No worry our mighty class of '78 will be the greatest. OF THE MERRY-GO-ROUND

Well I'm almost writing toward the end of the annual. Well I better start slowing down and begin to say "Farewell, my dear" like Shakespeare.

Now I hope I didn't leave out most of the critical things I forgot to mention if so I'll remember later which will be too late to write on your annual. Oh well

With a brain like mine I'm bound to fail someday.

Okay to refresh your memory I would like to say again you've been a fantastic person - wonderful personality.

Please don't ever change!!!

SNO-BALL

1976 - Sno-Ball

Woodrow Wilson High on December 18, 1976, in the multi-purpose room, the Sno-Ball was held; with a perfect theme . . . "Midnight Magic." All who attended looked magically glamorous and seemed to enjoy the splendid sounds of Powerhouse. The chaporons, faculty, and many who attended were exuberated by the large amount who came to this special event.

During this night of magic, the Sno-Ball court was announced: Sophomores: Lynn Hatashita and Debbie Nunez. Juniors: Barbara Espinosa and Eva Valdivia. Seniors: Maria Brockman and Christina Aguilar. Sno-Ball queen of 1975, Yadira Ramirez, honorly CROWNED 1976, QUEEN . . . CHRISTINA AGUILAR. CONGRATULATIONS!!!

Midnight as it is, may seem simple

But what about tomorrow and the dream we'll leave behind.

Midnight while the moon gently

Let's watch the dusky shadows

Midnight is for each other, one we need to share;

To show my love for you, to whom
I really care.

Midnight before tomorrow let's hold each other tight;

And stay embraced as one, until

MR. AND MISS WILSON

On the evening of March 11, 1977, Woodrow Wilson High held their first annual "Spring Dance". It started off with the fantastic sounds of "Clean Slate". Our spirited students not only attended this event to dance, but to acknowledge the 1977, "Mr. and Miss Wilson" and the court. Mr. and Miss Wilson are chosen because of their great contribution of time and dedication to Woodrow Wilson High. The two students picked were Jesse Verdin and Cheryl Hatashita. The court consisted of: Jesse Verdin, Marianne Maisnik, Darrell Yamashiro, Colleen Quan, Mark Rios, Amey Lee, Linda Sonoda, Don Yamagishi, Valerie Bernson, Brian McKay, Cheryl Hatashita, and Steven Serrano.

SADIE HAWKINS

The straw on the floor and the sound from "PRISM" in the air, made it an unforgettable night. Especially for "Rick Galvin" who was crowned "Spring King" for 1977. There were shot-gun weddings, candy apples, rent-a-dance partner which all made a country atmosphere of fun and excitement on the 18th of February in the Multipurpose room.

FANFARE OF FASHION

The Juniors and Seniors did it again—Powder Puff Day, and what a day. The stands were packed and the teams were at their best. It was a Wilson extravaganza. The first play set the tone of the game. The line action was ferocious. Nadine and Cruz banged away like pros, and the crowd loved the battle, cheering with every body contact. The cheerleaders spurred the players on, while the Miranda gang turned the tide with hard blocking and fancy running to account for one of the scores. Cynthia Lopez ran for the other touchdown, and the game ended with the Seniors on top — 12-to-0. The Juniors played a fine game, and eventually they will encounter the upcoming Juniors with this year's loss in mind. The crowd left the game buzzing about the hard play.

ANNUAL STAFF

Another year of headaches . . . that's what is claimed every year when working on the yearbook. There are deadlines to be met which means work, work, work. Working consists of typewriters clicking, layouts spread on the tables, negatives being printed and heads thinking. The staff vigorously worked to meet the early deadline for this yearbook. Although this year has been difficult, we did the best of our ability to complete the Hoofprints yearbook of 1977.

Hey,
 Well, it's been great getting to know you this past year. I wish we'd known each other early cuz you'd a real nice friend to have. Hope you've had a fun year full of happy memories. Good Luck in all you do.

Always
 Colleen

This year's Annual Staff was blessed by the competent and dedicated group consisting of the following hard workers, Valerie Bernson, Editor-in-Chief, Don Yamagishi, Photo Editor, Celeste Quan, Copy Editor, and an outstanding array of assistants, Rebecca Maravilla, Andrea Wong, Penny Wong, Colleen Quan, Beverly Miranda, Tom Villegas, Ronald O'Neal, Lourdes Bourges, Amey Lee, and Ken Isaquo.

TO Kenny - Alias Disco Kid ♀ ♂ ♀ ♂ ♀ ♂
Before I begin I want to offer my apologies to whomever the space
I am writing in was reserved for originally (actually I'm not that sorry but just to be polite I'm going to pretend I am). Well Kenny I guess you've danced your way into many a heart in your day
the same way you did into mine.
I suppose that this very special, unique, God given talent (yours and only) you have for making everyone (anyone) like you is something to be proud of huh? I wish I had the time and space to write you all I'd like to say and to express to you how much I'm going to miss you now that you're going. But that would take the entire annual and as is plain to see there is barely enough space for me to write these few lines to you at all!
why with all the girls who were lucky enough to get their phone numbers in at all. I hope the years to come for you are ones that are filled with happiness and that all the bumps in life's rocky road don't go so bad on your back seat. I hope you get everything out of life that you want and that one day you learn to read english, so that you can one day read this noveltette all by yourself. I want you to know that I'll continue to pray each night that you are accepted into the U.S. and get your green card. That way there will never more be a doubt in my mind that instead of just taking longer than usual to ~~come~~ come home you haven't been deported! Keweenaw!
just think Kenny..... no longer would there be the nerve racking thought that you were being delayed by the immigration any longer.
you'd be at peace with your mind.
you'd be free at last. Free Kenny!
Free to roam the streets. No longer to lurk in the shadows. Free from California to the New York islands.
Free Kenny Ishisawski to walk from one end of this sweet land of liberty to the other. To walk where your alien forefather did before you. FREE FREE FREE!
